

Hazing

Registered student clubs and organizations exist at Palmer College of Chiropractic (College) under the assumption that their activities and programs contribute to the educational, civic and social development of the students involved.

Therefore, a student club or organization that engages in hazing is contrary and detrimental to the purpose of the College, the education and personal development of its students, and thus, has no place within the College and is strictly prohibited.

SCOPE

This Hazing policy (Policy) applies to the entire College community, which is defined as including the Davenport campus (Palmer College Foundation, d/b/a Palmer College of Chiropractic), West campus (Palmer College of Chiropractic West) and Florida campus (Palmer College Foundation, Inc., d/b/a Palmer College of Chiropractic Florida) and any other person(s), groups, or organizations affiliated with any Palmer campus.

DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Policy, the following terms shall have the meanings specified below:

- > The term “College” refers to Palmer College of Chiropractic, including operations on the Davenport campus; Florida campus; and West campus.
- > The term “College premises” includes all land, buildings, facilities and other property in the possession of, owned, used or controlled by the College including adjacent streets, alleys, sidewalks and parking lots.
- > The term “hazing” refers to a reckless or intentional act that is an explicit or implicit condition for initiation to, admission into, affiliation with, or continued membership in a group or organization. This includes any activity, whether it is presented as optional or required, that places a new member in a position of servitude as a condition of membership.
 1. Hazing is a broad term encompassing any action or activity, which does not contribute to the positive development of a person; which inflicts or intends to cause physical or mental harm or anxieties; and/or which demeans, degrades or disgraces any person regardless of locations, intent or consent of participants.

2. Hazing includes any mental or physical requirement, request or obligation placed upon any person (pledge, new member, associate member, member, affiliate, guest), which could cause discomfort, pain, fright, disgrace, humiliation, embarrassment, injury or which is personally degrading or which violates any federal, state, local statute or college policy or rule. Any activity described in the definition of this Policy upon which the initiation, or admission into, or affiliation with, or continued membership in an organization is directly or indirectly conditional, shall be presumed to be "forced" activity.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

Jurisdiction

This Policy and associated rules, processes and procedures applies to conduct that occurs on College premises or at College-sponsored or College-related activities or service functions on or off College premises or at non-College activities on or off College premises that adversely affects the College and/or the pursuit of its objectives.

Advisor, Officer and Member Responsibilities

1. It is the responsibility of each student club or organization, its advisors, officers and members to be aware of and comply with all College policies, rules and procedures.
2. Any advisor, officer or member of a student club or organization who witnesses or becomes aware of hazing activities has a responsibility to report and disclose the factual and descriptive information including, but not limited to, identity of persons involved, dates, times, actions taken if any and other relevant information to the College's administration and/or the individuals listed below under, "Contacts".
3. The officers and advisor(s) or a student club or organization are responsible for informing its members (pledges, new members, associate members, affiliates, guests) of this Policy. This Policy will be read by the president or designee at the first meeting of the student club or organization each academic term.
4. All student clubs and organizations that require an initiation process for membership must complete a Hazing Acknowledgement Form. This Form must be submitted during the first (1st) week of the academic term to the Office of Student Services to certify acknowledgement of and compliance with this Policy.

5. All student clubs and organizations that require an initiation process for membership must complete and submit a “Members’ Information” form to the Office of Student Services 30 days prior to start of each academic term. The Office of Student Services is to be promptly notified, in writing, of any changes in membership information. Membership information is to be accurate and current at all times.
6. The president or designee must be in attendance at all new member functions.
7. The advisor or designee must be in attendance at all new member functions.
8. The president and advisor must approve all activities planned for new members.

Notifications

In all cases of alleged violations of this Policy, alumni and national/international headquarters of the organization may be notified.

Consent Not a Defense

Consent to hazing is never a defense to a violation of this Policy.

Disciplinary Action

STUDENTS AND/OR STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Violations of this Policy may result in the filing of a charge of misconduct under the Student Code of Ethics as described in the Student Handbook. Any member of the College community may file charges against any student organization or club, its student officers and student members who may be found collectively and/or individually responsible for misconduct when such misconduct is authorized, encouraged, directed, tolerated, supported by or committed on behalf of the organization or club.

Any student organization found to be in violation of this Policy is subject to disciplinary action including suspension or permanent loss of recognition as a student organization as set forth in the Student Code of Ethics as published in the Student Handbook.

Sanctions up to, and including, suspension or dismissal from the College may be imposed upon students found to have violated the Student Code of Ethics. The Student Code of Ethics may be found in its entirety in the Student Handbook.

EMPLOYEES

Employees involved in alleged acts of hazing and/or who knew of or should have known of these activities may also face disciplinary action up to and including termination.
