

Student Records - FERPA

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) affords students certain rights with respect to their educational records.

SCOPE

This Student Records – FERPA policy (Policy) applies to the entire College community, which is defined as including the Davenport campus (Palmer College Foundation, d/b/a Palmer College of Chiropractic), West campus (Palmer College of Chiropractic West) and Florida campus (Palmer College Foundation, Inc., d/b/a Palmer College of Chiropractic Florida) and any other person(s), groups, or organizations affiliated with any Palmer campus.

DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this Policy, the following terms shall have the meanings specified below:

- > The term “College” refers to Palmer College of Chiropractic, including operations on the Davenport campus; West campus; and Florida campus.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES

1. The right to inspect and review the student’s education records within 45 days of the day the College receives a request for access.
2. Students should submit to the Registrar or other appropriate College official, written requests that identify the record(s) they wish to inspect. The Registrar or other appropriate College official will make arrangements for access and notify the student of the time and place where the records may be inspected. If the records are not maintained by the Registrar or other appropriate College official to whom the request was submitted, the Registrar shall advise the student of the correct official to whom the request should be addressed.
3. The right to request an amendment of the student’s educational records that the student believes are inaccurate or misleading.
4. Students may ask the College to amend a record that they believe is inaccurate or misleading. They should write the Registrar or College official responsible for the record, clearly identifying the part of the record they want changed, and specify why it is inaccurate or misleading. If the College decides not to amend the record as requested by the student, the College will notify the student of the decision and advise the student of their right to a hearing regarding the request for amendment. Additional information regarding the hearing procedures will be provided to the student when notified of the right to a hearing.

5. The right to consent to disclosure of personally identifiable information contained in the student's educational record, except to the extent that FERPA authorizes disclosure without consent.
6. One exception, which permits disclosure without consent, is disclosure to College officials with legitimate educational interests. Such an official is a person employed by the College in an administrative, supervisory, academic or research or support staff position (including law enforcement unit personnel and clinic staff); a person or company with whom the College has contracted (such as an attorney, auditor, security firm or collection agent); a person serving on the Board of Trustees; or a student serving on an official committee such as a disciplinary or grievance committee or assisting another College official in performing tasks.
7. A College official has the legitimate, educational interest if the official needs to review an education record in order to fulfill their professional responsibility.
8. Except as provided in (3) above, the right to request that directory information be withheld from release.

Directory Information

The College has designated certain categories of information as directory information. A student's consent is needed to release this information as directory information. A student's consent to release this information is implied. A currently enrolled student may instruct the College to withhold one or both categories of directory information by submitting a request form to the Registrar prior to the end of the fifth day of instruction for a term. Regardless of a student's enrollment status, a request to withhold directory information remains in force until the student submits a subsequent request for removing the restriction. Forms may be obtained and filed at the Registrar's Office.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

1. Student's name
2. Addresses
3. Email address

4. Telephone numbers
5. Date of birth
6. Weight and height, if an athletic team member
