LICENSURE REQUIREMENTS

The Doctor of Chiropractic degree, in and of itself, does not entitle the recipient to practice chiropractic. Those who earn the degree must apply for a license to practice in the jurisdiction of their choice.

Due to the various licensure requirements in each of the 50 U.S. states, as well as in other countries, it is strongly recommended that applicants contact the respective Board of Examiners regarding pre-chiropractic educational requirements in states and countries where they may consider practicing after graduation. Some states require a bachelor's degree. To obtain a Florida chiropractic license, an applicant must have obtained a bachelor's degree prior to licensure from an institution accredited by an organization recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. In addition, most licensing boards require a criminal background check prior to licensure.

Neither acceptance for admission into the program nor the subsequent earning of a Doctor of Chiropractic degree guarantees that a state or foreign country will grant a graduate a license to practice chiropractic. Each state and foreign country, through its legislative and administrative process, defines the standards of competency and scope of practice of chiropractic within its jurisdiction. Such standards may include, but are not limited to, the pre-chiropractic and chiropractic education of the applicant for licensure.

State boards may accept or require passing of National Board examinations as part of their licensing procedure.

Information on state and international licensing requirements is available from the Federation of Chiropractic Licensing Board website at: www.FCLB.org or individually from each state board licensing office.

REFUND POLICY FOR IOWA AND FLORIDA

Palmer College of Chiropractic's Refund Policy for withdrawals is calculated using the official withdrawal date to pro-rate aid as well as tuition and refundable charges through the 60% point in the term. This is based on calendar days from the first day of the term through the last scheduled day of the term, including weekends and midterm breaks of less than five days. After the 60% point in the term, financial aid will not be reduced for any withdrawal, nor will any refund of tuition or other refundable charges be granted. This policy applies to all College withdrawals whether student initiated or administrative withdrawals.

Financial aid awarded (if any) will be returned to the federal, state and/or Palmer programs on a pro rata basis through the 60% point in the term. Outside scholarship or non-federal loan assistance will not be returned unless specifically requested by the provider.

Eligible charges due or paid will be refunded on a pro rata basis through the 60% point in the term. For students not borrowing federal funds, any amount due to the student will be refunded within 30 days from the date the College determines the student's withdrawal.

REFUND POLICY FOR WEST

The College will refund 100 percent of the amount paid for institutional charges, less a reasonable deposit or application fee not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250), if notice of cancellation is made through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later.

(PAGE 54)

If a student takes out an educational loan, the student has the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.

(PAGE 57)

The College does not accept experiential learning credits.

(PAGE 73)

The College does not have a Leave of Absence Policy outside of what is described above.
