

Biography –Jennifer Randazzo

JENNIFER RANDAZZO, M.A.S., C.P.A., VICE CHANCELLOR FOR FINANCE

Jennifer Randazzo was named Palmer’s vice chancellor for finance in November 2018. She’s responsible for all business and financial strategic planning, accounting, finance, forecasting, risk management, asset management, investments, private and tax-exempt institutional financing, auxiliary services and human resources matters. Prior to joining Palmer in 2010, she was a senior associate with RSM US LLP (formerly known as McGladrey LLP). She holds a master’s degrees in accounting from Northern Illinois University and a bachelor’s degree in accounting from St. Ambrose University. She holds an inactive CPA license with the state of Iowa.