

Biography – William Sherrier

WILLIAM SHERRIER, D.C., M.A., DEAN OF ACADEMIC AFFAIRS, FLORIDA CAMPUS
(PORT ORANGE, FL)

William Sherrier, D.C., M.A. earned a Doctor of Chiropractic degree from Life University in 1989. He became a faculty clinician with Palmer Florida in 2003 and is considered a pioneer faculty member with the coll. Since then, he has held the titles of associate professor, director of practice foundations, interim dean of academics and associate dean of clinical sciences. Dr. Sherrier has participated as an advisor for Palmer clubs and currently sits on three Palmer committees.

Dr. Sherrier earned a Master of Arts degree in applied learning and instruction in 2015 from the University of Central Florida and additionally was awarded a graduate merit fellowship.