

Biography – Daniel Weinert

DANIEL WEINERT, D.C., PH.D., COLLEGE PROVOST

Daniel Weinert (WY-nert), D.C., Ph.D., is a 1996 graduate of Palmer College of Chiropractic. Prior to earning his doctor of chiropractic degree, Dr. Weinert earned a B.S. in biology at Northern Michigan University and an M.S. in exercise science from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst. In addition, Dr. Weinert earned his Ph.D. in higher education from the University of Iowa. His dissertation research focused on factors impacting faculty innovation within doctor of chiropractic programs.

Dr. Weinert is a graduate of Palmer College of Chiropractic's Rehabilitation Residency Program and is a Diplomate of the American Chiropractic Rehabilitation Board.

He has worked as a faculty clinician and taught several courses at Palmer, including physiotherapy, anatomy/physiology, biomechanics, biochemistry and immunology. Administratively, he has served as the department chair for Diagnosis and Radiology, dean of academic affairs, vice president for academic affairs and campus provost for Palmer's main campus in Davenport, Iowa. He currently serves as Palmer College of Chiropractic's college provost. He oversees all academic programs and patient care for Palmer's three campuses.