RULES GOVERNING THE IOWA CHIROPRACTIC EDUCATION AND RESEARCH FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIPS

The Iowa Chiropractic Education and Research Foundation has established up to two annual $2500 chiropractic scholarships to be awarded to Palmer College of Chiropractic students. These scholarships will be awarded at Palmer College of Chiropractic homecoming weekend.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

The student must be a member of the Iowa Chiropractic Society and have successfully completed a minimum of 5 trimesters at Palmer College of Chiropractic and maintained a cumulative 3.0 GPA at the time of application. The student must be willing to reside and practice in the state of Iowa. Applicants must complete the application and:

- Provide a written essay answering the following questions:
  o What other organizations or professional activities do you participate in that allow you to advocate for or advance a positive image of the chiropractic profession?
  o Why did you get into chiropractic?
  o What might be your potential for future contributions to the chiropractic profession and to Iowa Chiropractic Society?
- Provide a written recommendation from a professor or academic advisor

All documents should be emailed to membership@iowadcs.org or mailed to the following address. They must be received no later than July 31. Please include your name on all documents submitted.
