

Biography – Joy Lewis

JOY LEWIS, ED.D., M.S., DEAN OF ACADEMIC AFFAIRS, PALMER FLORIDA (PORT ORANGE, FLORIDA)

Joy Lewis, Ed.D., M.S., holds a Bachelor of Science and a Master of Education degree, completed in 2002 and 2004, from the University of Central Florida. She graduated from Nova Southeastern University in 2010 with her doctorate in Educational Leadership. Dr. Lewis's career within higher education spans more than a decade with 15 published peer-reviewed journal articles, a textbook, and many life- science education training materials. Her work designing and implementing Palmer College's innovative use of anatomy labs and instruction has been used as the model by many other institutions of higher education. Dr. Lewis served as the associate dean of Life Sciences at Palmer Florida from May 2020 until August 2023, when she was named Dean of Academic Affairs.